Junior Region #3 Bordenball Tournament

Tournament Notes:

1. Please ensure you have read the Bordenball Rules and your team is prepared.
2. Please bring your school's bordenball for warm-up.
3. Play-offs
  - a. Everyone will make the playoffs
  - b. You will play teams from your pool
4. In the event of a tie in pool play the following steps will be used:
Two teams tied:
  - a) The team with the better goals for vs goal against ratio will be ranked higher.
  - b) If teams are tied then a flip of the coin will be used.
Three + Teams tied:
  - a) Teams will be ranked by goals for vs goal against ratio amongst the tied teams.
  - b) If there are still 2 tied teams you will refer to the above format.
  - c) If 3 teams are tied then draw will take place.
  - d) If two teams are tied then a flip of the coin will be used.
5. When you arrive please follow directions on staking out a spot in where your school will leave their outdoor clothing etc... this will be your team meeting place. When your team is not playing this is where they should be.
Everyone must remove outdoor shoes before entering the gym, this includes ALL adults (parents and coaches)!
6. Please bring your own garbage back to use at the end of the day to ensure your area is clean and neat before leaving. This includes garbage and clothing!
7. It is imperative to remember we are guests in the school and we appreciate the staff and students for accommodating us. Please ensure your students also know it is a privilege and to be on our best behavior (as we normally do!).
8. Any questions please feel free to contact Colin Walker, 613-293-1381.
